LONDONDERRY HAS NIGHT OF TERROR

Rifle and Machine Gun Fire Sweeps Streets in Fierce Fighting.

Londonderry, June 24.—Terror hid away here yesterday and last night, rifle and machine gun fire sweeping the streets in the fiercest fighting to develop thus far in the civil war, which began last Friday between Unionist and Nationalist forces.

The number of killed and injured during the day has not been determined as it has been impossible to reach the scene of the terrible pitched battle in Bishop, Cross and Bond Streets. It is believed, however, that there were scores of victims. Hospitals are being taxed to their capacity in caring for those struck down by bullets fired by the opposing factions.

Rumors of the most alarming character are current here. Nationalist forces are said to be gathering to the northwest of the city preparatory to an attack, while Unionist adherents are entering the town and are being collected for a spring offensive of the place. Several companies of British troops are on their way here from Belfast, but are being held back by the British army on the other side of the city. The British army is being held back by the British army on the other side of the city. The British army is being held back by the British army on the other side of the city.

EXTREMISTS IN FIGHT

The men engaged in the actual fighting are the extremists of the contending factions and probably number only a few hundred. They absolutely terrorized the city yesterday, however, as they fired volleys down the streets from barricades they had erected, or posted on roofs or in windows, shot at almost everyone who dared to appear.

Bishop Street, a long thoroughfare running southwestwardly from the town hall, has been the principal battleground during the past 24 hours.

Sinn Feiners have concentrated near St. Columbkille college, about three quarters of a mile from the town, while the Unionists have taken up positions near the centre of the town and have been firing at the Sinn Feiners from their positions.

It was reported early last evening that the bodies of several men killed during the day's fighting were lying in Bishop street, and could not be recovered because of the murderous fire maintained by the belligerents.

Londonderry is facing starvation if the fighting continues. It is impossible to deliver supplies, houses and no one dares to venture out of doors in the business section of the town. There is danger, too, of a famine in the gas supply, owing to the disorders, hundreds of people have left the city for the south, some being reported to have arrived at Strabane.

SAY ALBERTA FIRMS ARE PROFITEERS

HUGE PROFITS MADE BY CERTAIN FIRMS

The Union Meat Market of Coleman and Hembling's grocery of Edmonton are alleged by the board of control to have committed offences against the combines and fair prices act in selling sugar at a retail profit in excess of two cents a pound, which the board considers to be the normal profit.

These are the only Alberta firms mentioned for infractions of the act in a lengthy report, signed by W. F. O'Connor and James Murdoch, commissioners, and received by Major Duncan Stuart, Calgary sub-commissioner of the board, yesterday. The board cites these cases, among a large number of others, affecting wholesalers, speculators and retailers in Canada, as instances "of the manner in which the combines are being prepared to the causing of the prosecution of the offenders."

When the board has exhausted and exhausted its rights, it is intimated, it will ask the provincial attorney-general to prosecute the offenders. It will assist to the limit of its capacity in the criminal prosecution of every firm of whose profits seem to the board to be unfair, or whose prices seem to be unjust and unreasonable, and will request the minister of justice to supply counsel to assist in the conducting of the prosecutions.

FACTS BY THE CASE

The facts against the two Alberta firms are cited as follows: "The Union Meat Market, of Coleman, Alberta, purchased granulated sugar from Western Grocers, Lethbridge, Alberta, at nineteen and thirty-four one-hundredths cents per pound, and from Simington & Co., Calgary, at nineteen and forty-nine one-hundredths cents per pound, during the month of May; resold it at 22 1/2 cents per pound."

Hembling's grocery, Edmonton, purchased granulated sugar from McDonald Cooper, Revillon Wholesale, Campbell, Wilson and Horne, and Western Grocers, all of Edmonton, at nineteen and seven one-hundredths cents per pound, and during the month of May resold it at 22 1/2 cents per pound."

In addition to 18 specific instances of prices alleged to be in violation of the law, cited in the report, the board makes a number of general observations and recommendations for prosecution will be issued in due course.

PROS FOR SPECULATOR

"There has been no real scarcity of sugar, but with everybody, including the consumer, demanding sugar, and more sugar, the speculator has been able to make a profit. The ordinary means of supply not being able to meet the demand, the speculator has been able to make a profit. The ordinary means of supply not being able to meet the demand, the speculator has been able to make a profit."

The above conclusions are set forth by the Canadian Board of Commerce in a report received by Major Duncan Stuart, Calgary sub-commissioner, yesterday. The report is signed by W. F. O'Connor and James Murdoch, commissioners.

SINN FEINERS AND SOLDIERS STAGE BATTLE

Troops Are Reported Pouring Into Belfast and Many Have Started for Derry

London, June 24.—Soldiers and Sinn Feiners in Londonderry fought from eleven o'clock Wednesday night to midnight with a result yet unknown, according to a Belfast despatch to the press association. An armed car with Lewis guns, supported by infantry, attacked a party of Sinn Feiners who had been firing along Bishop street. Each burst of firing was followed by a brief silence, but was renewed repeatedly until midnight, when it ceased.

The casualties are believed to have been numerous. The Sinn Feiners are reported to have been pouring into Belfast and many have started for Derry.

TROOPS POURING INTO BELFAST

London, June 24.—A despatch to the London Times from Belfast timed 11.30 o'clock Wednesday evening says troops are pouring into Belfast and that some of them have already started for Londonderry.

CONFERENCE WITH PREMIER

London, June 23.—Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, General Sir Neville McCreedy, military commander in Ireland, and Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of war, visited Premier Lloyd George this morning. Another interview between the premier and General McCreedy probably will take place later.

The Irish office has issued a denial that the railway trouble at Clonsilla was created by the Irish government with a view to producing a test case and forcing an issue on the munitions dispute.

GOVERNMENT AVERSE TO STRIKE

Dublin, June 23.—A high government official said tonight that the government greatly desired to avoid a railway strike and would do nothing to provoke it. It must insist, however, that soldiers and police be carried and it could not admit the men's right to refuse any form of traffic.

U.S. REFUSES ADMISSION TO MISS BUTLER

MISS BUTLER

New York, June 23.—The decision of the Canadian immigration officials at Halifax refusing Miss A. Butler, of Manchester, England, permission to enter Canada to marry any other than the man she had crossed the Atlantic with, was upheld by United States immigration officials at Ellis Island today. It was decided at a special board of inquiry that Miss Butler must continue her journey to Liverpool on the steamer Caronia which sails from this port Saturday; that if she was not to be admitted to Canada, she was not to be admitted to the United States.

Miss Butler's original purpose in crossing the Atlantic was to become the bride of Captain R. Kitchen of Sydney, C.B., formerly of the C.F.A., whom she promised to marry when he was in Manchester last year. She sailed on the Royal George for Halifax from Liverpool. It was midway between these two ports that Capt. T. Mellor, of the British army, stepped into Miss Butler's life as a lover, and before Halifax was reached she exercised woman's right to change her mind.

LORDS WILL BE REFORMED

SOME TIME

London, June 24.—Premier Lloyd George, answering questions in the House of Commons today, said that the government intended to undertake the reform of the house of lords during the present parliament.

Germany would be invited to join the league of nations when she showed a desire to fulfil the peace treaty obligations.

SEVERAL QUESTIONS REGARDING THE FATE OF THE KAISER WERE PUT, AND TO ONE QUESTION THE ANSWER WAS GIVEN

"Your friend is not safe yet." In a brisk debate in supply on the vote for the transport ministry, one of the departments was most persistently condemned for extravagance. New points of attack were developed by the opposition, but Sir Eric Geddes put up a vigorous defence and the vote was always safe.

TILLAGE METHODS TO CONTROL WEEDS

(Experimental Farms Note)

Weeds are one of the most destructive agencies the grain farmer has to contend with. They not only rob the soil of moisture and fertility, decrease crop yields and add expense to harvesting operations, but they are in some measure responsible for soil drifting, since frequent cultivation to destroy weeds pulverizes the soil so that soil drifting results.

The practice of "stubble in" is largely responsible for the rapid increase in weeds in the West. Frequently the second crop after breaking is stubbled in and during the two seasons perennial grasses and other weeds get well established, and, as many farmers have found to their cost, eradication in after years is expensive. Fall or spring ploughing before sowing the second crop on new land is usually advisable. Stubble in without surface cultivation on the old land gives the weeds every opportunity to multiply. Shallow cultivation of stubble land before sowing will aid materially by destroying the weeds that have been wintered over and have started during the early spring. The cultivation should only be of sufficient depth to destroy the weeds, thus permitting deposition of the seed grain in the firm soil beneath. Too deep cultivation frequently results in drying out the seed bed and in a decrease in crop yields.

It is on the summer-fallow that grain-growers largely depend for cleaning fields of weeds. The fallow therefore should be thoroughly worked, and in order to curtail the cost and avoid pulverizing the soil—too much the proper implements should be used at the proper time. Cultivation of the fallow in the fall at harvest, or in the drier sections, in the spring immediately after seeding will aid in starting the weeds and they can be ploughed under in June. Frequently after carefully following a field for the whole summer it is found that the weeds come up in the crop the next year. This may be due to the surface soil being too loose and dry to allow weed seeds to germinate. Making the soil sufficiently firm after ploughing so that the moisture will come too near the surface will make conditions such that the weed seeds will have to sprout. In the West considerable difficulty is experienced with weed seeds blowing on to the ploughed land from other nearby fields. The weeds come up in the crop and cause considerable loss. In districts with long enough seasons to the crop when the leaves are about the spring and this will warm up the soil and when weeds have started there can be destroyed before seeding. Harrowing the growing grain is a practice that should be more commonly adopted. The least damage is done to the crop when the leaves are about one inch high, and the next best time is after the crop is well rooted and the plants are about five inches. The development and nature of the weeds must, however, be the deciding factor as to the time to harrow. Most plants are most readily destroyed when they are in the two-leaf stage. On the Scott Station weeds crops are usually harrowed twice, and while some delay in maturity results, a clean crop is usually more profitable than a weedy one, and where the soil is firm and free from trash little damage has been experienced.

SHOULD NOT BE TOLERATED

People who get together in this country and pass resolutions full of hatred for Britain and of sympathy for the Sinn Féin murder gangs that are maintaining a terror in Ireland would be more at home in some place outside of this Dominion. The policy of deportation that was extensively applied to several hundred of the public enemies who were engaged in Bolshevik propaganda ought to be extended to the fanatics who are, though fruitlessly, doing their best to inflame opinion here in favor of the Irish "Republic." Canada has no business to harbor in its midst such as those DeValera found in certain parts of the United States. Canada has no heart sympathy for anyone striving to kindle war feeling against the Mother Country.

The Toronto Mail and Empire is right when it says that Canada should not suffer the Hearst publications to circulate among her people. The fact that these inciters to bloodshed between the two great English-speaking nations are permitted to come into this country does, however, embolden Britain's enemies here to indulge in some pernicious activity. The Hearst papers should be banned at once and the pernicious activity should be suppressed or deported. Canada is a British Dominion, and it will not do to let the advocates of Dominion Government for Ireland get a wrong idea of what Dominion Government means. It means the upholding of the Empire and the setting down with a strong hand of the enemies of the Empire, from whatever country they come.

Loyalty to British connection is very strong in this country. It is strong as a sentiment, and it ought to be no less strong as a policy. There can be no other connection of so much moment to Canada. To what country do we look for immigrants of the stamp required for the making of this Dominion a mighty nation? It is not to the United Kingdom? British men and women in the prime of life, industrious and law-abiding, and of the national spirit regionally, are eagerly sought after. We must not permit agitators of the Britain-hating type to exercise any license of seditious speech here. Nothing could be more damaging to the country than the toleration of such gentry, and nothing could do more to discourage the immigration of the kind of Englishmen, Scotchmen, Welshmen and Irishmen we want. The Hearst Journal and the Sinn Féin Insurgents of Britain should be expelled from Canada.

During the war Canadians lost over 50,000 men on the battlefields of Europe. During the same time, at home, 42,920 succumbed to the "Great White Plague" it is surely time that some steps be done to stamp out tuberculosis.

One reason for the high price of sugar is found in the shortage of the world's supply. In pre-war days Europe produced over 8,000,000 tons per year, or nearly one half of the world's output. The war prevented the cultivation of sugar beet in Belgium, France, Russia, Germany and Austria, and today we are largely dependent on cane sugar for our supplies.

GIVE YOUR PARTNER
A SQUARE DEAL

Agriculture is a family industry where the work and home life are not separated. All members of the family participate in the common toil.

for the support of the home. Therefore the wife of a farmer is his equal partner.

The farmer needs a wife as part of his business equipment. On the farm the home is a big part of the business and the business a part of the home. It is, however, a fact that the farmer on the average farm works with better results than he gives his wife. What farmer is without some improved machinery to till the fields or care for the crops and the herd? Yet often the wife has to walk out to a well for water and sometimes the well has not even a pump. If there is no pump she is compelled to draw water in a bucket. That method was in use more than 1,000 years ago. A farmer forced to till with the means in use at the time of the Civil war would complain loudly.

The farmer's wife often carries water over 200 feet to the tea kettle. This effort might be saved her by an automatic pump to draw the water from the well and send it to her kitchen through pipes.

When Monday comes she rises a little earlier and draws a large amount of water. It is wash day. But she does not wash with an electrically operated washing machine, wringer and mangle. Heavy tubs are given her or a washing machine she must run by hand. Not only is there a lack of laundry equipment, but the farm woman, unless she is an invalid, does the washing without help. John, however, may have gone to town in a $1,500 car after the milking is finished and while his hired man is cleaning the stables.

After she has speeded the family on its way for the morning, she cares for the milk utensils; probably washes the cream separator; she feeds the chickens, takes care of the eggs, and on market days dresses the poultry. She does all this despite a primitive water supply.

In New York state a survey of farm homes showed 40 among 50 homes had no laundry equipment, but the labor involved in caring for old lamps. Why not give mother electricity or kerosene gas? But she, the average farmer care to harvest a crop with a scythe?

The woman's work is never done. Her afternoons are as crowded as her mornings—filled with tasks to be accomplished with primitive tools.

The farm wife must prepare 1,095 meals a year with the little help the family gives her. One hired girl to every hundred homes is typical, statistics show us.

The crushing thing of it all, to the farmer's wife, is the days on and without change, but changes are coming rapidly.

THE CLASS "A" BAGGE.

Victoria Times.

For unwarrantedly adorning himself with a class "A" button—the visible indication that its wearer has served with the C.E.F. in battle—a charge was brought against an official of the Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment department at Calgary on Thursday. The magistrate held, however, that the obvious subterfuge to obtain public money in private profit could not constitute a misdemeanor unless the wearer had attempted to procure any benefit therefrom, or to obtain that which is meant for those who have actually served with the army in France. It was only by the suppression of course that a decision of this character would bring a storm of protest from those who are entitled to wear the insignia. Very few members of the C.E.F. are boastful enough to point to their record of service in battle as their warrant for a special privilege. They depend on a grateful country to reward the significance of the symbol by people who cannot establish their right to it, is unjust to the genuine wearers of it.

A JOLLY FROM THE JOLLY SKIPPER

"Do you ever catch any whales, captain?" asked young Miss Green on the ocean liner.
"Often, ma'am," answered the captain.
"How very wonderful!" she gushed.
"Tell me how you catch them."
"We drop a few old salts on their tails, ma'am."

"I desire no remuneration for this poem," replied the long-haired poet, as he drifted into the editorial sanctum. "I merely submit it as a compliment." "Then, my dear fellow, permit me to return the compliment," replied the editor, with true journalistic courtesy.

Domination of Friends of the President Shown in How Ways at Preliminary Meetings.

San Francisco, June 25.—Indications tonight are that the friends of President Wilson and his administration are in complete control of the machinery of the Democratic national convention which will open here Monday. This was shown today in various ways. The Democratic national committee meeting to decide between contesting delegates, apparently had the stage for a ruling calculated to keep out of the convention Senator Reid, Missouri, and Senator Hardwick, Georgia, two of the bitterest critics of the Wilson policies. The Missouri and Georgia contests will be heard tomorrow. There was also evidence tonight that William J. Bryan would find the cards stacked against him in his attempt to put into the Democratic platform a league of nations plank in disagreement with the president's views and a prohibition enforcement plank favored without the acquiescence of the administration.

The Democratic national committee today sent a telegram to the governor of Tennessee urging a special session of the legislature to ratify the federal suffrage amendment in order that all American women may vote in the presidential election.

THE IRISH QUESTION.
Among platform proposals reaching Homer Cummings, chairman of the national committee, was one group of planks expressing the views of leaders whose opinions are believed certain to have weight. The Irish question was the only one of a highly controversial nature dealt with. In substance the Irish plank advocated by these leaders follows the line of Irish reservations put forward by Democratic senators during the treaty fight and pledges the party to instruct American representatives on the league of nations when appointed to bring up the Irish problem for adjudication by that body. Many other planks dealing with Irish freedom have been called to the attention of the party leaders and it is predicted that many conflicting councils on the subject will be laid before the platform committee. At a conference in the office of the American commission on Irish independence an agreement was reached by representatives of several Irish-American bodies to stand together for a plank espousing American recognition of the Irish republic.

ALBERTA BOYS' "BIG BROTHER"

Y.M.C.A. PLANS FOR BOYS' WELFARE

A. W. Fergie has been appointed Boys' Work Secretary for Alberta. Mr. Fergie, who was one of the original six "Y" secretaries to go overseas with the first contingent, will also supervise the Town and Country Department. He is located in Calgary, and will devote his whole time to plans for the welfare of towns and country boys in the provinces. He is an expert in work for boys and has well earned the title of "Big Brother."

Way back in the prehistoric days Fergie was the first boy to join the Employed Boys' Brotherhood at Toronto Central Y.M.C.A. In 1915 he became associated with Taylor Station as Assistant Boys' Work Secretary at Toronto Central. As secretary of the Toronto Boys' Workers' Union, pioneered the first big co-operative efforts in work for boys.

In 1907 he went to Ottawa as Boys' Work Secretary, later succeeding Taylor Station in the same capacity at Toronto Central. Two years later he again succeeded Taylor in the same capacity as Boys' Work Secretary for Ontario and Quebec.

On being invalided home in the fall of 1917 he took charge of the C.S.E.T. work now known as the Trail Rangers and the Tuxis Boys. Returning overseas in 1918 he took charge of the Y.M.C.A. military work in England. Latterly he has had charge of Boys' Work at Toronto Central.

Fergie's outstanding characteristics are conservation to boy life, personal interest in individual boys, high sense of duty and devotion to duty, firm convictions regarding the policy of co-operation with the churches and an enthusiastic admiration for the C.S.E.T. program.

TO MAKE YOUR ROOF MORE USEFUL

- One of the hardest jobs paint or stain can be given to do is to protect shingles.
- The roof of a house receives the greatest share of every climatic extreme—rain and snow lodge upon it, the sun beats at right angles most of the time it's shining.
- Shingles left unprotected have no chance against such conditions, and a poor stain helps them but little. In

Shingle Stain

We have a scientifically correct combination of creosote and linseed oils that really protects the shingles. It makes a roof more useful, because it makes the shingles last longer by preventing curling, cracking, and consequent leaks—while 20 soft, velvety, artistic colours make it wonderfully efficient in adding to the whole beauty of the building.

RED DEER FAIR

"THE FAIR OF CENTRAL ALBERTA"

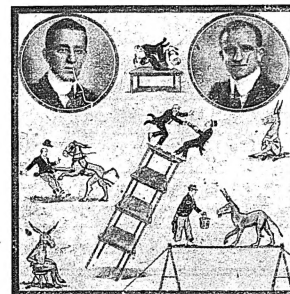

JULY 12-13-14, 1920
MONDAY - TUESDAY - WEDNESDAY

DARE DEVIL WILSON—

In his "Leap of Death" Dare Devil Wilson performs the most sensational, fearful feat ever accomplished or attempted, and is the one big thriller of our Fair. Climbing to the top of a lofty ladder, 72 feet in height, Wilson plunges head forward down to a short incline, alights on his chest, shoots out into space, and in another instant stands right up on his feet. He takes his life in his hands at every performance, as the accuracy with which he crashes on the hard wood chute at the bottom of the ladder he turns entirely on the balance he uses in making the dive from the top of the ladder. Wilson is one of the five men who comprised the "Congress of Dare Devils" which Al. Ringling of the famous Ring Bros. Circus took with him on his trip around the world. On that tour he made his leap before every crowned head of Europe. All the other Dare Devils have since met with fatal accidents in their work.

ZOLA DUO—

Comedy Knockabout Acrobats. Creators of endless merriment by the newest of methods and the most grotesque stunts. This act is presented with snap and vim; they do most wonderful athletic feats interspersed with boisterous irresistible fun that will change frowns to smiles and make you forget your cares, finishing their performance by building a pyramid of tables on the top of which funny balancing feats are attempted, which cause the tables to rock back and forth, and eventually fall over and crash to the ground.

ED. ZOLA & CO.—

An entirely new idea in comics, is a burlesque pantomime depicting an educated mule and his trainer. The funniest comedy situations are evolved as the mule performs feats never before seen in animal training. The entire performance is a delightful collection of crazy antics that in no way resemble a gymnastic act, yet the result is so foolish that it is a riot of laughter from start to finish.

MORE PAY FOR JUDGES, M.P.S AND MINISTERS

Members Raised to $4000, Cabinet Ministers from $7000 to $10,000, and Judges Accordingly.

Ottawa, June 25.—Cabinet ministers and judges are to get increased salaries and members of parliament are to get the $4000 indemnity which they have been advocating. The government's intention in the matter was revealed in a statement issued tonight by the prime minister. The salary of members of the cabinet is to be increased from $7000 to $10,000; that of the prime minister from $12,000 to $15,000. The salary of the solicitor general (who does not usually hold cabinet rank) is increased from $5,000 to $7000; that of the leader of the opposition from $7,000 to $10,000; of the speaker of the senate and house of commons from $4000 to $6000, and of the deputy speaker of the house from $2900 to $4000.

The seasonal indemnity of members increased from $2500 to $4000. The salaries of judges of the supreme court of Canada, of judges of the superior courts of the provinces and of county court judges are similarly increased.

Announcement of an increase in the seasonal indemnity was accompanied by the further intimation that the government is preparing to amend existing legislation in regard to members' stipends. The following are the increases in judicial salaries recommended:

Supreme court of Canada—Chief Justice from $10,000 to $15,000; puisne judges from $5,000 to $12,000; superior courts of the provinces: Chief Justices from $8,000 to $10,000; puisne judges from $7,000 to $9,000.

County courts—Judges of county courts in counties in which there is a city with a population of 40,000 or over an increase of $1000, that is from $4000 to $5000.

Notwithstanding these increases, judicial salaries in Canada are still substantially below those now paid to the judges holding corresponding positions in Great Britain and in some of the other dominions of the empire, the statement says.

CANADA'S CLAIMS AGAINST GERMANY

Canada's claim against Germany for reparation for losses sustained by the country and by individual citizens during the war has been forwarded to England for presentation at a conference of representatives of all parts of the British Empire, soon to be held in London, and subsequently, at an Inter-Allied conference at Spa. The bill rendered by the Dominion is for a total of $1,571,000,000. The total is made up of the following items:—Cost of war and demobilization, $1,715,000,000; separation allowances, $85,500,000; Halifax losses, $30,000,000; army of occupation, $8,000,000; illegal warfare, $31,500,000. The separation allowances allotted to are those paid to families and dependents of persons who served in the military and naval forces during the war. By Halifax losses is evidently meant the damages occasioned in that city by the explosion of the battleship Mont Blanc, in 1917. The sum claimed under the head of army of occupation is the cost of maintaining Canadian troops on the Rhine frontier for a period after the signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918. The last item is a claim for compensation for damages sustained by Canadians as a result of the resort by Germany to illegal methods of warfare. Included in this item, for instance, would likely be a sum to cover losses of Canadian merchant and fishing vessels sunk by German U-boats during the period of unrestricted submarine warfare.

HIS NOT TO REASON WHY

A dear old gentleman noticed a laborer walking along a railway track and diligently tapping the wheels. Having nothing better to do, the old gentleman approached and asked: "How many years have you been working for this railway, my man?" "Thirty-eight, sir," replied the laborer, still continuing his work. "I suppose you have had many varied experiences in your time?" "Yes, sir," replied the laborer. "No, sir, I've always had this same job. I've tapped the wheels of trains for eight and thirty years, sir." "A long time my man, a very long time, and it must have been a steady character. And, by the way—what is the reason for tapping the wheels?" "Why do you do it?" "The man stood up, scratched his head, and said, 'I'm darned if I know.'"

SIR H. AMES SAYS LEAGUE IS NO DREAM

Canada's Position in League Unique,
Having Joined, Not For What She Could Get, But For What She Could Give.

Ottawa, June 22.—A message of confidence in the success of the League of Nations, and of praise for Canada's part therein, was delivered in the Commons tonight, by Sir Herbert Ames, financial secretary of the league. "The League of Nations is no longer a dream," Sir Herbert said. "It is a reality; it has been; it has form; it has organs; it has functions. Many difficulties have been overcome; many dangers avoided. There are still difficulties and dangers, in the way, but I am today convinced that ultimate success is reasonably sure, so convinced that I am ready to stake my future on this issue."

The speech of Canada's representative on the secretariat of the league was followed with closest interest by members of all three parties. He said he had returned to record a solemn declaration, that in his judgment, in entering the league, Canada had made no mistake. He urged, if possible, fuller co-operation. Canada's position in the league was unique. She had joined, not for what she could get, but for what she could give.

NO HAMPERING RESERVATIONS
"Not with hampering reservations, indicative of distrust, striking at the very root of the spirit of mutual confidence in which alone a league of nations can successfully operate," he accepted the pact in its fullness, believing that the interpretation of the obligations involved would be reasonable, able, willing to trust and be trusted.

The disappointment over the failure of the United States to enter had turned all eyes toward Canada. Canada would be asked to bear her share of the expenses. For her there would be no immediate return beyond the approval of conscience and the esteem of the world, but she would come when what Canada is now giving would be returned a hundred-fold. Sir Herbert appealed to Canadians to be as generous, as a nation, toward sick and suffering nations, as they were known to be as individuals toward suffering individuals.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS
International relationships, he declared, should be free from partisanship. The spectacle of political division on international questions existing, he believed, was a national disgrace. "A nation not far from us" should be a sufficient object lesson for Canadians to agree to disagree on home questions.

Referring to the organization of the league, he said that only five out of the forty-five possible original members had definitely abstained from entering. These were: United States, Cuba, Haiti, Honduras and Nicaragua.

"It would be too much to assume," Sir Herbert declared, "that the abstention of the United States was responsible for similar action by the four smaller powers."

In two months after the signing of the peace treaty there had been much anxiety as to whether the invited states would join the league. Within the time, every invited state had decided, and there were evidence in the letters of accession, that all did not consider the covenant a perfect instrument, they entered without reservations, preferring to seek their amendments from within the league rather than from without.

THIRTY-SEVEN POWERS JOIN
Thirty-seven powers, with a population of $50,000,000, have already joined the league, and there was little doubt that inside of another year there would be 45 to 50 nations members. "Never in the history of the world has so large a number of independent nations joined together for common ends," said the speaker.

It had been intended to hold the first session of the assembly in Washington. This was impossible when the United States abstained from becoming a member, and the assembly was postponed until November, 1920, when it will be held in Brussels.

The council has dealt with tasks such as that of settling the Saar Basin difficulty. It had set up there a commission, in order to administer the area with justice to both contending parties, and in accord with the terms laid down in the peace treaty. One of the most active and successful members of that commission was Mr. R. D. Vaughan, formerly mayor of Winnipeg. Sir Herbert declared that since Mr. Vaughan's appointment, he had not only demonstrated his fitness for the important post but had also brought credit upon Canada and Canadians.

CONTROL OF DANZIG
The control of Danzig had been another problem for the council to solve. To have it that city to Poland, or to have it in the control of Germany would have precipitated war.

It was therefore been placed under the authority of the league and Sir Reginald Tower had been appointed high commissioner to establish settled conditions of government. The free city of Danzig would make treaties with Germany and with Poland and the League of Nations would see fair play for all concerned. Other treaties, said Sir Herbert, would doubtless create similar situations, and for these the league must take responsibility.

RED DEER GIRL KILLED BY AUTO IN CALGARY

Bessie Florence McGill, the ten year old daughter of David McGill, formerly of Red Deer, died from injuries received in an automobile accident on Tuesday last week. The jury exonerated the driver of the car, Joseph Brown, from blame.

THE VERDICT
The verdict was as follows: "That the deceased, Bessie Florence McGill, came to her death from injuries received from coming in contact with an automobile on Tuesday, June 22, 1920, resulting in a hemorrhage of the liver. We are of the opinion that the driver, Joseph Brown, did all in his power to avoid the accident. We recommend that placards be placed adjacent to schools regulating the speed to six miles per hour."

DETAILED STORY
The evidence of the witnesses brought out the fact that the little girl was knocked down but not run over, and Dr. R. Francis, who attended the girl after the accident, said that he was of the opinion that some of her ribs would have been fractured had the heavy car passed over her body.

J. H. Brown, the driver of the car, who was out on $200 bail on a charge of manslaughter, gave evidence. He said that he left the Sanyaside hospital shortly after ten o'clock. He turned south on Twelfth street N. W. at a moderate pace, and when nearing the school, he saw a number of children playing on the street. He slowed down his car and used his horn. The children then gave him the right of way, so he released his brakes and continued his course. He had gone but a few yards when he saw one child dart out from the sidewalk, running backwards. In the hope of missing her, when a collision seemed inevitable, he turned his car to the left, and forced it into the gutter on the boulevard. The child continued on her course, however, and the car caught her and knocked her down. He did not say whether the car passed over her or not.

When asked as to the speed he was traveling prior to slowing down, Brown replied that he was going about ten miles per hour.

He added that he had driven past the school a score of times, and that there was always children on the road, he was always careful. Charles Poin, chairman of the sick committee of the G.W.V.A., Captain McGill, and J. Van Tassik, of the S.C.F., who were in the automobile when the accident occurred, also gave evidence. Poin said that he was sitting in the front seat with the driver, he shouted a warning at the top of his voice, but apparently she did not hear him, and continued to run backwards. Brown swore to the left, but the bumper struck the girl and knocked her down. He jumped out of the car and picked her up.

Captain McGill and Van Tassik testified in the same strain. Marie Campbell, 10 years of age, who was playing with the deceased prior to the accident, said that her chum ran out onto the street to catch a ball.

Bessie McGill, in company with other children, was playing catch with a ball at the time of the accident. Just as the automobile came along Bessie ran off the sidewalk onto the street to catch the ball. She was running backwards and ran into the car. She did not see the automobile pass over her body, but she saw her lying on the ground.

Mrs. L. G. Greig, who resides in the vicinity of the accident, saw the girl lying knocked down, but did not see the car pass over her. Mrs. Greig said there were about 20 children on the street at the time of the accident.

Plans of the scene of the accident were prepared by O. Wilson of the S.C.F. and W. M. Brooks of the city engineer's department.

Dr. McCalla, who performed the autopsy, said that death was caused by hemorrhage of the liver caused by rupture.

The juryman were T. B. Moffat (foreman), William Spence, A. B. Carmichael, A. Lamont, P. J. McManus and Fred Jones.

A negro was trying to saddle a mule, when a bystander asked, "Does that mule ever kick you?"
"No, suh, but he kicks sometimes when I've let him."

EXAMINER'S REVIEW OF PROVINCIAL MARKETS

Calgary, June 25.

Cattle
Most of the big packers are off the market at Calgary so far as beef is concerned, and shippers and local butchers are taking care of the situation fairly well, but there is a marked drop in beef prices again. Choice beef quoted $11.50 to $12.50; good butchers, $10.50 to $11.25; cows are about a dollar lower with the tops at $10 to $11 and good butchers $8 to $9.50. Light receipts during the week have probably saved a worse break. Feeder steers are going out at from $9.50 to $10 and lighter steers $8 to $9.50. Many calves on hand and the tops from $12 down. Very few bulls and the market about the same, at $7.50 for the best. Stock heifers are selling fairly freely and at prices from $8.25 down; cows from $8 down.

Hogs
Beef prices in Edmonton, which held up longer than might have been expected, took a more decided drop this week, and are now getting in line with other markets.
Receipts
Receipts during the week have been light as usual and the quotation has held steady at $18.50 during the week and this morning some brought $19. Edmonton's hog market has been holding steady all week at previous quotations and sales being made at $18.50.

Sheep
Market prices are holding about the same as last week's reduction at Calgary and receipts are not large. Spring lambs are being shipped to the Edmonton market now, and all mutton prices are lower, with lambs, $13 to $14, wethers and ewes probably around $12.

Horses
Buyers very scarce and sales are only made in some of the light horses, which are run through. There is a big auction at Calgary next week, which might start something, as the horses are of good quality.

Grain
Markets are a little lower all around than a week ago and prices are hard to keep up to present levels with good crop prospects on both sides of the line. Conditions in Alberta have been improving steadily during the week. In some parts of the north there has been a little more rain than was necessary, but June rains are what are needed and fine weather will bring the crops along. Central and southern Alberta have been getting good showers and particularly in the south the situation is very greatly improved. Prices are being sustained owing to the shortage of last year's crop on the market.

Produce
Egg receipts lighter this week and prices advanced to $10.50 to $10.80 at Calgary. Dairy butter coming quite freely and prices somewhat lower with straight receipts 35 to 37c, and on graded basis from 35c down; with fancy table butter from 35c to 37c. Creamery butter in good demand and prices unchanged; market outlook is brighter. Live poultry prices steady. Live fowl around 25c; movement light. Potatoes quiet, country prices from $75 to $90.

Shippers are still increasing their dairy consignments in Edmonton district and prices are holding firm. Cream unchanged, with fat quoted at stations; dairy butter moving freely at prices from 35c down according to quality.

Wool
No market prices established on wool and not likely to be for a few weeks yet.

Hides—Furs
All hide prices reduced, with green salted butchers hides 9c to 10c; green fallers, 7c to 8c; kip skins, 9c to 10c; calf, 12c to 15c.

No. 1 horsehair down to 15c and 20c.
No movement in furs and market prospects very indifferent.

WHAT HAS BRITAIN DONE?
Rev. F. B. Hodgkins.
What has Britain done?
Kept the faith and fought the fight
For the everlasting right;
Chivalrously couched her lance
In defence of Belgium, France—
This has Britain done!
What has Britain done?
Given every seventh son,
Has the challenge of the Hun;
Placed her men on every field,
Proud to die, too proud to yield—
This has Britain done!
What has Britain done?
Answers every far-fading breeze
Blown across the seven seas;
"Watch and ward secure she keeps,
With a vigilance that never sleeps"—
This has Britain done.
What has Britain done?
On every front, her flag unfurled,
Fought a world war round the world,
Then, when all is said and done,
Ask her Allies, ask the Hun,
"What has Britain done?"
What has Britain done?
For her slain Britannia weeps—
She might boast who silence keeps.
But, when all is said and said,
Call the roll and count her dead,
And know what she has done.

MARRIAGE

Married, on Monday, June 28th, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. G. D. Armstrong, Bryant McKendzie, Red Deer, to Maggie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Logan, North Red Deer.

MOORE—HUNT

(Edmonton Bulletin) A quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Johnston, 1223 198th avenue, Edmonton, Monday evening, June 21, at 6:30 p.m., when her niece, Miss Margaret Frances Hunt, daughter of Mr. Frederic Hunt, Oshawa, became the bride of Frederic B. Moore, Red Deer, son of Dr. W. F. Moore, Thaxton, Essex, England, Rev. Canon McKim officiating.

The bride, who was charming in a coat suit of navy blue satin with rose and sand colored bouquets, black picture hat, and corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and ferns, was given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Gertrude Johnston, who wore a nigger brown sateen suit with hat to match and bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Thomas Moore, Red Deer, brother of the groom, was the best man. Miss Catherine Johnston presided at the piano, playing the wedding march. After the ceremony the guests, seventeen in number, sat down to a wedding supper, served by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Johnston. The bride's table, prettily decorated with kewpies, and beside the wedding cake was a birthday cake, representing by its candles the age of the young bride, whose birthday was also being celebrated. After the supper the guests made up a festive party for the evening.

Only the immediate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. Many lovely bridal gifts were received by the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, after a honeymoon spent in Jasper Park, will make their home in Red Deer.

The many friends of the young people in Valley Centre and district will extend hearty congratulations to Mr. Moore and the best of good wishes to himself and his bride. Mr. Moore is the secretary of the Valley Centre School Board, and Miss Hunt taught there last term, so that this was a case where the valuable service of school trustees brought a very happy reward.
